

FACT Grantees 2013-2014
Bethany House of Northern Virginia - Alexandria	Bethany House provides emergency shelter and supportive services to victims of domestic abuse and family violence throughout Virginia. Bethany House primarily serves women and children from Northern Virginia who are homeless due to domestic violence. In FY13-14, BHNV will house 52 families (115 individuals) in its emergency shelters.	6,786 bednights, 47 adult clients and 59 child clients 29 adults attending individual counseling and 35 attended groups 2 children attended individual counseling and 8 attended groups 11 clients were supported in finding employment 5 were assisted in ESL or vocational training
CASA for Children of Augusta County, Staunton and Waynesboro - Staunton	CASA of Children provides the single service of court advocacy for abused and neglected children. This project will train 10 new volunteers and supervise 25 volunteers who provide effective advocacy services to 45 children in Harrisonburg/Rockingham County, Lexington, Rockbridge County, Buena Vista, Covington and Alleghany County.	67 volunteers 2,354.66 volunteer hours worked 122 children in court system
Children's Advocacy Center of Bristol/Washington County - Bristol	The safety of children is the responsibility of all adults. The CAC will sue the nationally recognized "Stewards of Children" curriculum to train 250 adults, who work or volunteer with children in Bristol and Washington County communities, to recognize, respond, and prevent sexual abuse.	8 trainings with 119 participants 665 children attending personal safety training receive SOC info 79 new parents received SOC info during home visits 177 incarcerated teens and 8 foster parents were trained in Shaken Baby Syndrome prevention in 49 sessions
Children's Trust Foundation Roanoke Valley - Roanoke	A new forensic interviewer will increase capacity at Children's Advocacy Centers in the Roanoke and New River Valleys. Multidisciplinary teams improve the investigation of child abuse and reduce trauma to children	70 interviews 290 children served

	and non-offending caregivers involved. Services emphasize intervention, investigation, and treatment – beginning with a forensic interview with the alleged victim.
CHIP of Roanoke Valley - Roanoke	CHIP's "Power of Prevention" project will provide Shaken Baby Syndrome education to 64 prenatal and first-time mothers in CHIP through home visits. Shaken Baby Syndrome training and outreach will also be provided to professionals and caregivers in the Greater Roanoke Valley including partners such as Safe Babies Alliance, CTCMS and the Greenvale School.	119 families received SBS education 234 home visits 82 families received at least 2 SBS 62 families took pre/post test and 80% showed improvement
Center for Child and Family Services - Hampton	Safe Harbor for Kids will provide free assessments, child orientations, clinically-supervised visits, and family collaborative counseling sessions to non-custodial and custodial parents, and their children to strengthen parent-child and family bonding in a safe, secure, and nurturing environment for Hampton, Newport News, York, Isle of Wight, and Williamsburg residents.	382 supervised visits 381 child contact hours 86 hours of co-parenting sessions 50 assessments
Fairfax CASA - Fairfax	Highly trained court-appointed volunteers will advocate for 500 abused and neglected Fairfax County children, aged 0-18, with a specific focus on foster youth, so they may achieve permanency in as short a time as possible. Volunteers will make informed permanency recommendations to the court on behalf of the foster children.	378 children served 368 children assigned to 174 volunteers 150 new children from 72 families were referred during the grant period
Family Service of Roanoke Valley - Roanoke	Family Service of Roanoke Valley, partnering with Turning Point, West End Center, Presbyterian Community Center and Community Youth Program, will provide West Central Region residents who are victims of or at-risk for family violence with counseling and community education programs to prevent, treat and raise awareness about	108 hours of services provided 12 therapeutic day treatment clients 42 clients identified and receiving individual services

	family violence.
Foothills Child Advocacy Center - Charlottesville	Foothills Child Advocacy Center reduces and treats family violence and provides culturally-sensitive, coordinated, community responses to allegations of child abuse/neglect in a dedicated, child-friendly setting. In FY12, Foothills served 218 children in the Charlottesville/Albemarle community through multidisciplinary investigation, treatment and support services in collaboration with thirteen community partners.	183 forensic interviews (136 alleged offenders were family members) Conducted MDT case reviews on 175 child abuse cases involving 271 children
Greater Richmond SCAN - Richmond	Families Are Magic (FAM) connects parents with other parents, with information on everyday child-rearing issues, and with parenting services. FAM serves families from the City of Richmond and the counties of Chesterfield, Hanover, and Henrico. FAM reaches an estimated 60,000 people each year through public education and events.	5,216 FAM program visits 20 public awareness events 27 professional workshops 19 Stewards of Children 4 Circle of Parent groups
INMED Partnerships for Children- Ashburn	MotherNet/Healthy Families Loudoun will provide 40 families (90% Latino) in Loudoun County at risk for child abuse/neglect and other family violence with intensive in-home parenting education, practical support, and links to other appropriate community resources to reduce family stress and strengthen parents' ability to foster their children's safe, healthy development.	559 home visits among 40 families and 42 children 35 KIPS assessments 36 HOME assessments 109 ASQ screenings 34 CES-D screenings 33 home safety checklists 58 new IFSPs developed with new parents 652 referrals to other resources
Loudoun Citizens for Social Justice - Leesburg	LAWS Shelter Services, which provides emergency shelter and 24-hour crisis hotline services of domestic and sexual violence in Loudoun County. LAWS will serve approximately 30 women and 40 children and support 600	713 victims received crisis hotline services 39 women and 27 children received shelter services hotline calls during FY14.

New River Community Action/CHIP - Radford	CHIP of NRV will maintain 5 multiple-child families (1/2 of Giles DSS' caseload) with past, current, or risk for CPS involvement. Families will receive home visitation services from an RN/FCM team increasing parenting skills, health, support networks, resulting in no further CPS investigations/family assessments.	60 Parents as Teachers visits 18 FCM visits 23 health visits with RNs 2 case coordination case management enrollments
NRV Cares - Radford	NRV Cares will provide Parenting Young Children classes to 140 residents of Giles, Floyd, Montgomery, and Pulaski counties and Radford City with children ages 6 and younger using the Systematic Training for Effective Parenting curriculum in collaboration with Head Start, Virginia Preschool Initiative, Blacksburg United Methodist Church, and Giles Health Network.	12 courses 98 individuals
Piedmont CASA, Inc. - Charlottesville	Piedmont CASA seeks to expand services to Louisa County. This expansion will provide volunteer court advocacy (CASA) services to 35 new children of the 230 abused and neglected children served by the program in FY14.	7 volunteers and 2 new volunteers 14 children served 117 visits 691 collateral interviews 10 case-related meetings 9 court hearings 7 court reports
Presbyterian Homes and Family Services - Lynchburg	PHFS will provide an evidence-based treatment program for families referred for abuse/neglect. The family violence indicator addressed is CPS investigations of abuse by a family member. The program includes 16 group sessions and 7 home visits. Eight families from Amherst, Campbell and/or Lynchburg will be served. Partners include local DSS agencies.	16 parenting group sessions 24 home visits
Safe Haven Child Visitation Centers of New River Valley - Pulaski	Since 2008, Safe Haven Child Visitation Center has provided court-ordered supervised visitations and exchanges for children in more than 250 New River Valley	68 families Trained 20 new volunteers families with a history of violence and abuse. Because of the increasing number of clients needing services, the Center will expand its volunteer recruitment and training program.

SCAN of Northern Virginia - Alexandria	To provide 100 Northern Virginia individuals the nationally recognized child sexual violence prevention training program, Stewards of Children. This innovative program places the responsibility for preventing child sexual abuse on adults in the community, teaches them concrete ways to minimize risk and encourages them to act as agents of change.	3 in-service meetings, 19 attendees 212 community members trained 4 blog post on topic of sexual abuse Updated and created fact sheets on child sexual abuse Parenting Today radio show
Southern Virginia Child Advocacy Center – Rocky Mount	The Southern Virginia Child Advocacy Center will use marketing tools to engage community members and conduct eight education/outreach forums in Franklin County to train 100-120 community members on indentifying and effectively responding to child sexual abuse, using the Darkness to Light Stewards of Children Training curriculum.	164 individuals received training through 16 community education and outreach forums